

II Corinthians 4:15-16 (KJV)

For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.
For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish,
yet the inward man
yet the inward man
is renewed day by day.

My outward man is perishing - the part that is felt and seen It's dying every day - 2nd Corinthians 4:15 and 16
But my inward man is made anew every single day
As I feed upon the word of God, give thanks, and sing, and pray

For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace
might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.
For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish,
yet the inward man
yet the inward man
is renewed day by day.

For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace
might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.
For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish,
yet the inward man
yet the inward man
is renewed day by day.
yet the inward man
yet the inward man
is renewed day by day.
