

Hebrews 12:1-2 (KJV)

Let us lay aside every weight,
and the sin which doth so easily beset us,
and let us run with patience the race
the race that is set before us,

Would you fill your shoes with weight and try to run
Would you try to win a race that way Hebrew 12, verse 1
A runner with his feet weighed down will surely never win
This world will slow our walk with God and keep us far from Him

Let us lay aside every weight,
and the sin which doth so easily beset us,
and let us run with patience the race
the race that is set before us,

O Lord help me to see the weights I hold Help me to drop them for the treasure that is worth far more than gold There's a race to be run and a battle to be won Help me run this race with patience as in Hebrews 12, verse 1

Let us lay aside every weight,
and the sin which doth so easily beset us,
and let us run with patience the race
the race that is set before us,

Let us run with patience the race
the race that is set before us,
