

Psalm 103:14 (KJV)

For He knoweth our frame; He remembereth
that we are dust.

For He knoweth our frame; He remembereth
that we are dust.

God knows me - inside out and outside in
He knows where I am going - and He knows where I have been
I need to know my children - just like God knows me
In verse 14, of Psalm one-hundred three

For He knoweth our frame; He remembereth
that we are dust.

For He knoweth our frame; He remembereth
that we are dust.

God knows me - and God loves me
Even though He sees how weak I am

For He knoweth our frame; He remembereth
that we are dust.

For He knoweth our frame; He remembereth
that we are dust.

For He knoweth our frame; He remembereth
that we are dust.

For He knoweth our frame; He remembereth
that we are dust.

We are dust
